

One Hundred Third Congress
of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-three

Joint Resolution

To authorize the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration to conduct appropriate programs and activities to acknowledge the status of the county of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, as the "World Capital of Aerobatics", and for other purposes.

Whereas the International Aerobatic Club, which was founded on February 6, 1970, held its first championships in August 1970 in the county of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin;

Whereas in 1992 the International Aerobatic Club had 5,342 members throughout the world, representatives of which gathered in Fond du Lac to compete in the 23d Annual Aerobatic Championships during the period of August 9–14, 1992;

Whereas in 1992 the Experimental Aircraft Association and the Board of Directors of the International Aerobatic Club named Fond du Lac as the "World Capital of Aerobatics";

Whereas participants and spectators drawn to the aerobatic championships in Fond du Lac stimulate the economic well-being of the community and provide a spectator event of international significance; and

Whereas Congress declares that the county of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, is the "World Capital of Aerobatics": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration may conduct appropriate programs and activities at the Fond du Lac County Airport to acknowledge the status of the county of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin,

H. J. Res. 110—2

as the “World Capital of Aerobatics”, and that the airport may display signs notifying the public of such status.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
